Only Enchanting is the fourth installment in Mary Balogh's amazing Survivor's Club series. Each time I finish one of Balogh's historical, I close the book thinking damn this woman can write . Balogh stands out in the historical romance genre in that she creates such fully realized characters that are often imperfect, and deeply emotional.

Mary Balogh is one of my favorite authors and I have enjoyed her Survivors' Club series so far. Only Enchanting really surprised me. I did not expect to like Flavian's story so much. There is a wonderful balance between heartache, romance, and the inevitable happy ending. Flavian and Agnes are two of Balogh's most appealing characters.

Kiss and Only a Promise comes the final book in the rapturous Survivor's Club series—as the future of one man lies within the heart of a lost but never-forgotten love... For the first time since the death of his wife, the Duke of Stanbrook is considering remarrying and finally embracing happiness for himself. With that thought comes the treasured image of a woman he met briefly a year ago and never saw again. Dora Debbins relinquished all hope to marry when a family scandal left her in charge of her younger sister. Earning a modest living as a music teacher, she's left with only an unfulfilled dream. Then one afternoon, an unexpected visitor makes it come true. For both George and Dora that brief first encounter was as fleeting as it was unforgettable. Now is the time for a second chance. And while even true love comes with a risk, who are two dreamers to argue with destiny?

fall in love with Viscount Darleigh. He is certainly the perfect gentleman and everything her parents want: titled, handsome, respectable. His blindness only reinforces his quiet power and strength. But Philippa does not love him. Her heart is already taken and there is only one thing she can do: Thwart the matchmaking plans. Julian Crabbe is desperate to rescue the woman he fell in love with two years ago. Then, he was a reckless cub, justly earning Philippa's parents' scorn. Now, he is every inch a respectable suitor and determined to prove it before it is too late. Intrude on the viscount's house party? Gladly. Interrupt the match of the season? Happily. For nothing can stop the power of a love that will not be denied.
