Twelve Minutes of Love is a timeless tale of exile and longing, death and desire, love and belonging. Kapka Kassabova first set foot in a tango studio ten years ago and, from that moment, she was hooked. With the beat of tango driving her on and the music filling her head, she's danced across the world, from Auckland to Edinburgh, from Berlin to Buenos Aires, putting in hours of practice for fleeting moments of dance-floor ecstasy, suffering

Dance memoirs can be a hackneyed genre - many a shoe has trodden the path to Latin America in search of the soul of tango or salsa, but Kapka Kassabova's Twelve Minutes of Love: A Tango Story is a superior sort of recollection: a beautiful book, beautifully written.

Kassabova's narrative is structured like a milonga in tandas (a set of three or four songs or, in this case, chapters), with each chapter taking its name from a tango song.
